

100

years of Maternal and Child Health

The first Victorian baby health clinic opened in June 1917 in the St Matthias church hall, Church Street, North Richmond. To celebrate 100 years of this integral service, artists Kitty Owens and Lizzie Dennis have made artworks at ten Maternal and Child Health Centres across the City of Yarra. Follow this map to find each one. Curated by Cassie May.

www.yarracityarts.com.au #100MCH

- 1 Abbotsford/Collingwood Maternal and Child Health Centre
Gahans Reserve, Park Street, Abbotsford
- 2 Alphington Maternal and Child Health Centre
54 Yarralea Street, Alphington
- 3 Bargoonga Nganjin Maternal and Child Health Centre
182 St Georges Road, North Fitzroy
- 4 Connie Benn Centre (Fitzroy Maternal and Child Health Centre)
160 Brunswick Street, Fitzroy
- 5 South Richmond Maternal and Child Health Centre
415 Church Street, Richmond
- 6 North Richmond Maternal and Child Health Centre
23 Lennox Street, Richmond
- 7 Princes Hill Maternal and Child Health Centre
Corner Pigdon & Wilson Streets, Princes Hill
- 8 Gold Street Children's Centre
64 Gold St, Collingwood
- 9 Florence Peel Centre
126 Moor St, Fitzroy
- 10 Site of the first purpose built Maternal Health centre in Victoria
213-215 Church St, Richmond